SOP 11 — Time Adherence, Calendars & Meeting Respect

Shared calendars, scheduled work, public records of every interaction, and the discipline that holds it together.

TIER 1 · EMPLOYEE-FACING

Read together with: SOP 10 (Daily Updates & Meetings), SOP 01 (recording & centralized comms), SOP 08 (KPI scoring — where the reductions below are applied), and the Automation & Centralized System spec.

1. Shared Calendars & Central AI Integration

July
17

The calendars of the entire team are provided to Nabil with FULL access and integrated with the central AI system. Calendars are not private workspaces — they are shared operational infrastructure.

Maintenance & Reliability

Rule	Detail
Owner	Abdo maintenance-checks the calendar/AI integration every week .
Same-day fix	If anything goes wrong — even during his weekend — Abdo is required to fix it the same day . The system never sits broken.

2. Everything Is Scheduled

All team members schedule all of their tasks and meetings — internal or client-related, management or even one-on-one. If it takes time, it lives on the calendar. Nothing significant happens off-calendar.

3. Every Interaction Is a Public Record

Every single interaction — meeting or chat — goes into a public record. There is no “private” work communication (mirrors SOP 01).

Channel	Rule
Chats	On Slack by default.
WhatsApp	Group only, and only in specific cases with a specific reason . If there is no specific reason, it is strictly Slack .
Calls	On Zoom — recorded and uploaded immediately .

Call Filing Convention

Every recorded call is filed using this exact naming format:

Topic_Attendees/Teamname_Date

Example: ImperialCampaignReview_Sama-Karim_2026-07-03 or WeeklySync_FullTeam_2026-07-06.

KPI PENALTY. Failure to upload calls, or to file them accurately in the Topic_Attendees/Teamname_Date format, will result in KPI reductions (applied per SOP 08).

4. Meeting Respect & Time Adherence

START & END ON TIME

Meetings begin and end at their scheduled time. The weekly meeting is 40 minutes sharp (SOP 10).

PROTECT THE SACRED CALLS

The daily and weekly meetings are never double-booked or rescheduled except for a true life/death emergency or a collapsing client (SOP 10).

Respecting time is respecting the team. Showing up scheduled, on time, and on the record is the baseline expectation for everyone — not a courtesy.
